Seniors are allowed 2 college visits per year. Juniors are also allowed 2 college visit days, one in the fall semester and the other in the spring semester. College visit days will NOT count as an unexcused absence or against senior exemptions if this form is completed and signed by the student, parent and an official of the college or university visited. It is also the student's responsibility to arrange with each teacher prior to the absence regarding the work that will be missed. It will be at the teacher's discretion if the work should be turned in before or after the trip.
